INJURED ON A MOTORCYCLE

Yesterday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock, Floyd Donovan sustained a broken right arm and a severe gash in the face, when the motorcycle he was riding struck sand and overturned. The accident happened about eleven miles northeast of the city. Young Donovan, in company with Merritt Chaffee, were on their way to the ranch of Jay Donovan. Chaffee was driving and when the motorcycle struck the sand he was thrown over the handle bars clear of the machine. Donovan was not so fortunate. He fell with the machine and his hand was caught in one of the wheels which was still revolving with the result that both bones of the arm were broken just above the wrist.

The young man was taken to the ranch of Jay Donovan and Dr. Stagle was summoned. He dressed the young man's wounds and brought him to his home in Alliance. Five stitches were necessary to close the gash in the face. He is reported to be resting well today.

300 LICE Or More on One Hen

Is by no means uncommon. No one would expect to find a hen with that number of "lice" sucking her blood, but many expect to find the lice on the head and neck of the bird. We have counted over 2000 dead lice under a row of ten hens, on a rooster. Let's kill them. This great killer does double duty—killing lice, mites, bedbugs, etc. about the house. The rooster kills lice on the chickens sitting over it. Put up only in 10c tins. Three sizes—10c, 25c, 50c. Poultry Book Inc. F. J. BRENNAN

RALPH DAYLEY RECOVERING

Ralph Dayley, the man who was wounded last Wednesday in a gun fight which resulted in the death of George Rowding at Bingham is on the road to recovery. Following the shooting Dayley was brought to the St. Josephs hospital. He was shot under the left arm, the bullet entering his chest and passing thru to the right side. It was first thought his wounds would prove fatal but unless complications set in he will undoubtedly recover.

According to J. C. Dayley, the father of the wounded man, their well probably be no prosecution, of the younger Dayley as the sympathy of the people at Bingham is with him.

THE POLICE REPORTER

(By the Ex-Reporter)

Go to most any motion picture show and you will in all probability see a picture in which the brave young police reporter, age 20, saves the beautiful factory girl from the cruel villain, etc., etc.

But the truth is there are very few police "reps" under 35, and they have very little time to save beautiful factory girls, but it is not for me to criticize the movies.

The greatest police reporter in the United States died very recently in Chicago, where he was working on a morning paper, he was 50 years old.

To be a good police rep, you must have a peculiar "make-up", you must be entirely unemotional, yet be able to act as if your heart were breaking or that you were the happiest man alive, just as the occasion demands.

To illustrate this, I will tell of a case where there was a crowd of us police reps, the oldest man in the crowd was appointed (according to a custom among the "boys" on a case of this kind) as chief questioner of a young lady whose lover had been killed by a "yegg", they were about to get married. The police rep, Peterson, drew the sad tale from her, step by step, while we boys sat and took notes, firing an occasional "Pete", and we all felt kind of sad and queer.

But it was not for me to let anything like the way I felt show in my "copy", or there would have been trouble from No. 3 (most all papers have their editors numbered to save trouble).

Half an hour later we boys were at the police station, swapping jokes with the "yegg", and laughingly telling him how glad we were to see him back again, if we had done otherwise he would have been sulky, so we had to laugh to get the copy.

On the morning paper the police rep has a harder time than on an evening paper, as he must go from station to station, hospital to hospital, morgue to morgue, to river police (this is known as his "run") all night.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS TO CHICAGO

Operating officials from all over the Burlington lines are gathering in Chicago to attend their annual conference which convenes in that city Monday morning and will continue for three days. A great many railroad problems will receive the attention of the convention and every phase of operating will be given consideration.

W. M. Weidenhamer, superintendent of the Alliance division, left yesterday for Chicago. E. E. Young, general manager of lines west of Omaha, left today in company with C. D. Peckenpaugh, superintendent of the Sheridan division. J. G. Dole, master mechanic at Alliance, will also be present at the conference.

WESTERN UNION IMPROVEMENT

The Western Union Telegraph Co. are planning to make extensive improvements at Alliance according to W. Sauerbraun, local manager. The work will be started immediately. The plans include the installation of an eight machine dynamo set to replace the cell system that is now in use, in which 1600 cells are used. This dynamo set will be used in distributing current to meet the Denver current, and to supply current on the Guernsey, Sheridan and Black Hills lines. The power will be furnished by the Alliance power house, the Burlington power house being used as a reserve.

The plant will take care of three full squads, working eight men each, three half squads, working four men each, ten single sets of wires, two simplex sets carrying telephones and telegraph instruments on the same wire. The dynamo will also supply the current for eighteen Western Union clocks that are located in the city.

Extensive office equipment including an eighteen foot heavy slat backed switchboard, is included in the improvement plans. When the installation is completed the local office will have an equipment that is equal to any in the west and will add greatly to the efficiency of the local service, and at the same time decrease the maintenance expense.

At the meeting of the directors of the Commercial Club last night a motion was passed instructing the acting secretary to write W. D. Fisher, secretary of the commercial club at Norfolk, offering him the secretaryship of the commercial club in Alliance at a salary of $1500 a year. The work of Mr. Fisher in Norfolk was reviewed by the club and would indicate that he was a man admirably qualified to take charge of the work in Alliance.

A publicity movement was considered last night at meeting of the directors of the commercial club. The preliminary steps were taken to prepare a leaflet setting forth the advantages of Box Butte county. A letter from L. W. Wakeley, General passenger agent for the Burlington, was read. Mr. Wakeley advised the club to include the entire county in any publicity movement that was started and also stated that the Burlington railroad would be willing to assist in preparing the leaflet and would distribute several thousand of them gratis.

Divorce Petition Filed

A petition was filed in district court today by Bessie Beatrice Pickett asking that she be granted a divorce from Arthur J. Pickett, alimony, and the custody of their minor child. Mrs. Pickett is represented by Attorney E. H. Boyd.

Lloyd's Column

Do block heads necessarily sit on wooden necks? We believe they do. One young man, who lives not so very far from Alliance, is called by his friends, "fish-neck", because it is impossible to turn his head without turning his whole body. Whether this is an actual bodily affliction or whether it has been acquired by much training, is impossible to determine.

Is it Aesop's Fables or some other book that says, "You cannot always tell the size of an ass by the noise he makes when he brays." Just so it is with some newspapers or the editors of the selfsame papers, or those who use the said editors as catspaws for themselves. Self-assumed responsibility helps them none at all.

A Splendid Showing of Distinctive Millinery

We are offering for the approval of the ladies of Alliance a very distinctive line of Easter millinery including many desired designs and shades in the exquisite French models that have been faithfully reproduced for us by our Chicago trimmer. Ribbons, roses, small flowers, and French flower fancies prevail in this season's trimmings. Pre-Easter prices quoted by us are especially attractive.
